Corne Koppelaar, Global Habitat bio: Corné Koppelaar was educated at the University of Amsterdam as an economist. After a long and successful career as financial manager for housing associations in Amsterdam he started an international consultancy company in the housing sector (2005). During the past years there have been a number of topics related to housing that had the broad interest of all stakeholders in housing. Global Habitat collected data, shared best practice and gave advice on the following topics: comparative studies, benchmarking, sustainability, funding, ageing society, quality control, diversification and communication.
